SIR,

I am directed to return herewith the report of the Election Commissioner in R.A.E.Mis.40/40-41, received with your letter No.R.L.602, dated 24th September 1941, for reference in Mis.Ap.26/41-42 on the file of the High Court, as it is no longer required.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. Shamiengar
Registrar.

R. A. 24. 41-49.

IN THE COURT OF THE ELECTION COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Dated this 22nd day of July 1941.

Present:

C. NARAYANASWAMY NAIDU, ESQ., B.A.,B.L.,
Election Commissioner,

R. A. E. Mis. No. 40 of 1940-41.

Petitioner:-	Vs.	Respondent:-
Mr. R. Mohamed Hussain, Saheb, son of Mr. Shaik Mathar Saheb, 58 years, Mandy Merchant, Bowringpet.		Mr. Abdur Rawoof Khan Saheb, (Jodidar) son of Gulam Ahmed Khan Saheb, Bowringpet.

I. Petition filed under Rule 172 of the Representative Assembly ~~of 1940~~ Rules.

II. The petition was filed on 8-4-1941 before the Government and the same was received by transfer in this Court on 19-4-1941.

III. The respondent filed his objections on 6-6-41. The case came up for settlement of issues and the following issues were framed on 30-6-1941.

(i) Was the notice of candidature of the petitioner improperly rejected on the grounds:-

(a) that there was defect in the appointment of his election agent; and

(b) that Column No.1 was not properly filled up;

(2) Are not the grounds of rejection according to law?

(3) Did the petitioner give a false age and date of birth in his notice of candidature and ~~x~~ can this objection be taken by the respondent?

(4) To what relief, if any, is the petitioner entitled?

IV.

IV. The case came up for arguments by adjournments and the same were heard on 8-7-1941.

R e p o r t.

1. The notice of candidature of the petitioner was rejected on the following grounds:-

(a) that Column No.1 was not properly filled up, giving the correct name of the constituency,

(b) that as many as 7 persons were appointed as Election Agents, while only one person, who was qualified to vote, should have been appointed; that out of the 7 persons appointed one was a Hindu who was not entitled to act as an election agent for a Mohammadan Candidate and that it was not stated in which constituency the 7 persons were qualified to vote.

2. Nodoubt the Column No.1 was not completely filled up. It should have been entered in it 'Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board Area cum Bowringpet' in Mohamadan Rural Constituencies. It is not mentioned that the candidate stood for the Mohamadan Rural Constituency; but it is entered in Column No.6 relating to the denomination of the candidate that he is a Musalman. Further, there is no such constituency as Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board Area cum Bowringpet in the Mohamadan Urban Constituencies. Therefore there could not have been any doubt regarding his having stood for ~~his~~ the Mohamadan Rural Constituency.

3. Nodoubt rules 89 and 96 lay down that if the notice of candidature is not delivered in a completed form in the manner prescribed in Form III, the Returning Officer may reject it, after such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary. But the general principle is that - "trivial and immaterial errors in filling up nomination papers cannot invalidate them, especially if there is no possibility of a mistake arising therefrom." Vide last para of page 538 of Nanakchand's Law and Practice of Elections

Elections and Election Petitions.

4. And as was observed by Justice Mookerji in the case reported in I.L.R. 47 Calcutta 526, all rules are made for their observance, but in cases of their breach the object of the rules has to be found out, and if the object has been attained in spite of the breach, the transgression will have to be condoned and the words of the statute will be even stressed to secure the substance aimed at by the statute.

5. Therefore, as has been held in the cases reported in Hammond 77, Hammond 56 and 4 Jagat Narain 22, neither the addition of a portion of the constituency nor the omission of a portion of it is material, when there is no possibility of a mistake arising therefrom and therefore such omission should be ignored.

6. As already pointed out, if Columns Nos. 1 and 6 are read together, there was no room whatever for any mistake having been made regarding the constituency for which the candidate stood.

7. If there had been any doubt, a summary inquiry should have been held under Rule 96. Reference may be had in this connection to the cases reported in Hammond 375 and Hammond 595. Therefore the mistake has to be condoned.

8. It is alleged that the petitioner gave false age in the notice of candidature. The age given in it is 58 and the date of birth 1-2-1882. But in a document executed on 11-11-1939, a copy of which is produced and marked with the consent of both the parties as Exhibit I, his age was entered as '60'. There is a difference of about 2 years in the age. But this mistake is not material since he must have given his age roughly in the deed. I may in this connection refer to the Rajapur North Case reported in 2 Hammond's Indian Election Petitions 232, and referred to in Nanakchand's Law and and Practice of Elections and Election Petitions at page 121. In that case, in the notice of candidature or nomination paper the age was entered as '30' while in the Electoral Roll the age was given as 33. The difference was considered to be immaterial.

9. The main question to be considered is whether the candidate has attained the age of 25, as is required by Rule 23. There is no question of his being past 50 and a difference of 2 years is not at all material.

10. I would now come to the most important issue. As many as 7 persons are appointed as agents in the Election Petition. Some of the reasons given by the Returning Officer for rejecting the notice of candidature do not appear to be correct. Rule 15 relied upon by the learned Counsel for the respondent only lays down that a candidate standing for Mohamadan Constituency must be a Mohamadan and does not refer to the qualifications of the Agent. And rules 92 and 160 only lay down that an election agent should not be disqualified from being a member of either Chamber or from voting at the elections. Therefore, as was rightly held in Purnia Case reported in 1 Jagat Narain 54, the election agent need not be an elector of the constituency.

11. But rule 92 lays down that every notice of candidature shall be accompanied by a declaration in writing as shown in Form III that the candidate has appointed, or does thereby appoint, as his election agent for the election either himself or some other-person, who is not disqualified under the provisions of any of the rules from being a member of the Assembly or the Council or from voting at elections and who shall be named in the declaration.

And

And Rule 160 lays down that every person standing as a candidate at an election to fill a seat or seats in the Assembly or the Council shall, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the provisions of these rules, - appoint either himself or some one other person, to be his election agent.

12. Rule 160 provides for the appointment of an election agent, while rule 92 provides for a declaration of the appointment accompanying the notice of candidature. Therefore the wording of Rules 160 is more important than the wording of rule 92. Since it is expressly stated in rule 160 that only one person should be appointed as the election agent, it cannot be held that 'some other person' of rule 92 can be held to include some other persons.

13. The learned Counsel Mr. S. Srikantiah for the Petitioner argued that any number of persons can be - nominated, while one of them must be appointed at the time of scrutiny. But both in rule 92 and rule 160, the word used is 'appoint', and in the declaration the petitioner has appointed the seven persons as his election agents. Therefore there cannot be any substance in this contention.

14. I must therefore hold that only one person can be appointed as an election agent. I am supported in this - view by the case reported in 1 Jagat Narain 9 ~~(C Hammond~~ and known as Ballia case. As rule 11 (2) of the United Provinces Election Rules then stood, the expression used was 'some other person' just as in rule 92. Still it was held that 'some other person' could not mean some other persons and that therefore only one election agent could be appointed and that the appointment of more than one election agent was invalid. Since some doubt was however entertained, the rule was subsequently amended in the Panjab and the present rule 5 of - Chapter III, Part C lays down that 'some one other person' should be appointed. The wording of the present rule is similar to the wording of rule 160. Evidently rule 160 follows the new rule while rule 92 follows the old rule.

15. Therefore, there can be no doubt whatever that the appointment of more than one election agent is invalid. I therefore consider that the notice of candidature was rightly rejected on this ground and therefore the petition has to be dismissed. I recommend accordingly. The petitioner may be directed to pay Rs. 50/- as costs to the Respondent.

Dictated to the Steno-typist and after revision signed.

SIR D'ARCY REILLY, CHIEF JUSTICE,

and

MR. JUSTICE C. SUBRAHMANYA AIYAR.

Miscellaneous Appeal No.26 of 1941 - 42.

R. Mohamad Hussain Saheb .. Petitioner .. APPELLANT.

(By Mr. S. Srikantaiya).

v.

Abdur Rawoof Khan Saheb .. Respondent .. RESPONDENT.

Miscellaneous Appeal against the report of the Election Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore, in R.A.E. Mis. No.40 of 1940-41.

This appeal coming on for admission this day, the Court delivered the following :-

JUDGMENT.

If Rule 92 of the Representative Assembly Rules stood alone, it might be contended that in accordance with Section 13 of the General ~~Exi~~ Clauses Act the word "agent" and the words "some other

other person" in Rule 92 included also the plural. But Rule 92 requires that the candidate shall deliver a declaration that he has appointed or does appoint an agent. It is Rule 160 in the part of the Rules regarding election agents which specifically requires the appointment of an election agent, who according to that rule must be the candidate himself or some one other person. It therefore appears that reading the two rules together, as must be done, there is something in the context within the meaning of Section 13 of the General Clauses Act showing that the words quoted from Rule 92 must be understood in the singular only.--

The learned Commissioner's decision appears to be right.

This appeal is dismissed.

(Kolar - Mahomedan)

Assembly

Under Rule 172 of the Mysore Representative/Rules, 1940, the petitioner namedabove begs to state as follows:-

1. That he had filed his notice of candidature for election to the Mysore Representative Assembly from the Kolar Gold Field Sanitary Board Area And Bowringpet Constituency, and his number in the Voters list being 103. (Muslim Constituency)

2. That the said notice of candidature was rejected by the returning officer on the 10th of January 1941.

3. That such rejection is erroneous and unsustainable for the foregoing reasons, among others. and as such the election held without the petitioner is liable to be set aside.

WHEREFORE the petitioner prays that the election now held without the petitioner, in which the opponent was declared elected, be set aside and fresh election ordered.

The petitioner encloses herewith a Treasury Receipt No. 757 dated the 7th April 1941 issued by the Taluk treasury Bowringpet, for deposit of ₹ 100/- as required by the rule 176 of the Mysore Representative Assembly Rules.

a. The Returning officer erred in rejecting the petitioners notice of candidature on the ground that in his notice of candidature, the petitioner had mentioned seven (7) names declaring his agents, instead of one. This was not a material observation at all. It was not an error which could not have been remedied without necessitating the rejection of the notice of candidature.

b. The petitioner has not failed in any way to comply with the provisions of Rule 89, so as to render the rejection of his notice of candidature under the restrictive provisions of rule 96.

c. The Returning officer erred in not making any enquiry under Rule 96.

d. The Returning officer erred in holding that the candidate has not mentioned the constituency properly in column 1.

e. The rejection of the petitioners notice of candidature has resulted in great injustice to the petitioner and a majority of voters.

f. The interpretation of the rules in this matter by the Returning officer is not correct, and is otherwise untenable.

Bruhanumeshwaran

I, declare that whatever is stated above from paragraph a to f. is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Mis. Case No. 40 of 40-41.

Petitioner:- B. Mohamed Hussain Saheb.

- vs -

Respondent:- Abdur Rouf Khan Saheb.

The respondent begs to file the following objections to the petition filed by the petitioner:-

1. The rejection of his application is neither erroneous nor unsustainable and the election held without him is not liable to be set aside.

2. The notice of candidature filed by the petitioner bristled with irregularities and contravned many of the mandatory provisions of Law, non-compliance whereof disentitles the party from standing as a candidate for the - Representative Assembly; in particular, the respondent begs to point out the following defects in the petitioner's notice of candidature viz.,

(a) In the matter of nomination of election-agents, the petitioner has nominated seven persons

(i) six of whom are disqualified from voting-voting and whose names are not to be found on the Electoral roll,

(ii) the Hindu Gentleman whose name has also been mentioned can by no stretch of imagination be deemed to be a voter in this special constituency.

(b) On the facts mentioned in para (a) the nomination is absolutely void for uncertainty ~~xx xxxxxxxxx~~ and otherwise illegal and irregular.

(c) In the Column noted against name of "Constituency", the petitioner has failed to mention the special constituency from which he now seeks to contest, and it is not apparent as to from which constituency he sought election.

3. The petitioner has further made a false statement in re his age and date of birth; in a document executed by him on 11-11-39, a certified copy whereof ~~has been~~ will be produced ~~herewith~~ separately, he has described his age as 60 years, whereas in the notice under reference in 1940 he has given his age as 58 years; the petitioner has obviously grown younger with the progress of time.

4. There was no need for any enquiry by the Returning Officer nor is one contemplated under the Law in such circumstances; the petitioner never demanded an enquiry before the Returning Officer and not having done so there, he cannot be heard to urge for an enquiry here.

5. The Learned Returning Officer before whom these contentions were raised by this respondent, has, it is submitted with respect, correctly gone into the matter and has passed a perfectly legal and valid order.

Wherefore it is submitted that the petitioner has no ground to sustain his allegations and his petition is liable to be rejected with costs.

R.A.Mis.Cas.40, 40-41.

Petitioner:- B. Muhammed Hussain Saheb

V.

Respondent:- Abdur Raoof Khan Saheb.

Under O,VIII R.9 C.P.C:--

The petitioner files the following reply statement:

1. The respondent has merely repeated the reasons mentioned in the order of the Returning Officer and the petitioner submits that the grounds of appeal have been correctly set forth and are sufficient to set aside the election which has taken place.

2. The petitioner's notice of candidature has complied with all the necessary formalities required as set out in Rule 89 of the Representative Assembly Rules and has not contravened any of the mandatory provisions of law as alleged by the respondent.

3. It is not true that six of the seven persons nominated as election agents were disqualified from voting. Assuming however that the facts are or approximate to the allegations made in the written statement, the petitioner submits that so long as at least one election agent, has been nominated who is duly qualified to act as such election agent, this objection has no substance.

4. It is wrong to suggest that a Hindu cannot be nominated by a Muhammadan candidate as his election agent in his own constituency.

5. How the above facts make the notice of candidature illegal, irregular and void absolutely for uncertainty has to be made out by the respondent.

6. Concerning the allegation in 2(c) of the written statement the petitioner has to submit that he is not entitled to vote for or stand as a candidate in any other constituency in which the petitioner wanted to notify he was standing as a candidate for election has been described in part II Pp.102-103 of the Manual of the Assembly Rules thus. Part II--Muhammadan constituencies-(Rule 8)--(ii) Rural--Name of Constituency--Kolar Gold Field Sanitary Board Area cum Bowringpet. The same having been mentioned as the name of the constituency in which the candidate desires to stand for election, the number of the candidate on the electoral of that constituency having been furnished as well as the denomination of the candidate as required in column No.6 of form III . Notice of Candidature and the notice being further given to the Returning Officer mentioned on page 113 of the Representative Assembly Manual, the objection that the petitioner did not mention the constituency properly in column 1 cannot stand and is not subtainable.

7. Regarding the petitioner's age of birth, a document in Kannada executed by him may have mentioned roughly that he was sixty years old in November 1939, by the writer who apparently wrote by guess and without noticing it properly the petitioner may have signed it; but he does not remember it. In the notice of candidature the accurate date of birth is given--as 1-2-1882. Much is now made of this seeming discrepancy.

28/6/41

8. The Returning Officer ought to have made a summary inquiry under Rule 96 on these minor matters, when he felt some difficulties and then all these could have been rectified.

9. There has been thus no failure to comply with any of the provisions of Rules 89, 92 or 93. The construction of the Returning Officer in this behalf of Rules 89, 92 and 96 is not at all correct.

The objections may be overruled and the petition granted.

Issues.

1. Was the notice of candidature of the petitioner improperly rejected on the grounds:-

(a) that there was defect in the appointment of his election agent; and

(b) that Column No.1 was not properly filled up;

2. Are not the grounds of rejection according to law?

3. Did the petitioner give a false age and date of birth in-his notice of candidature and can this objection be taken ~~now~~ by the respondent?

4. To what relief, if any, is the petitioner entitled?

Certificate of Scrutiny :

I have scrutinised the eligibility of the Candidate and find as follows :

ರಿಟರ್ನಿಂಗ್ ಆಫೀಸರವರ ಅಥವಾ ಅಧಿಕಾರ ಪಡೆದಿರುವ ಇತರರ ರುಜು.

I hold that there has been a failure to comply with the provision of Rule 92 of the M.R.A. rules for the reason that while under Rules 92 and 60, only one person, who is qualified to vote, should be entrusted with declaration re. Election Agent — either the Candidate or some one other person —, the notice bears the names of as many as four persons. One of these is a Hindu while the Candidature affidavit is for a Muslim Constituency. It is not clear also as to whether these persons are qualified to vote and if so, to what Constituency. Under Rule 92, it is imperative to find that such person is not disqualified. He has not also mentioned the Constituency in Col. 1. For the reason stated above this notice has to be rejected under Rule 96(1)(b) and I accordingly reject it. If there is a failure to comply with the provisions of Rule 92, and, under the same rule the notice will not be valid unless such a declaration, duly completed, is delivered along with the notice.

IN THE COURT OF THE ELECTION COMMISSIONER, BANGALORE.

R.A.E. M.P.40/40-41.

Petitioner:- Respondent:-

B. Muhammad Hussain V. Abdul Ravoof Khan

Petitioner's Memo.

Ballaiah's case referred to in Hammond's Indian elections ~~having been 27~~ at page 37 is easily explainable; Since it is based on the wordings of the section of the British Indian Enactment. There ~~between~~ some/other person in the Section corresponding to Section 92 of our electoral rules, The word one is inserted as indeed we find it inserted in Section 160 of our rules. Since Section 160 contains the words 'some one other person' but Section 92 does not contain these words while instead it contains the words 'some other person' and Section 160 follows Section 96 and is not referred to in Section 96: It is clear that the appointment of more than one person as an election agent was not contemplated to invalidate the election petition announcing the name of Candidature of a person before the Returning Officer.

Thus Penal Statutes should be construed strictly in favour of the subject and not against him and as the words 'some other person' in Section 92 are different from 'Some one other person' in Section 160 and Section 96 refers to only Section 92 Balliah's case is distinguishable and the Petition is to be allowed.
